

Global IPv6 Summit in Japan 2002

Panel 3

IPv6 Opening the Door to Japan's Next Generation Information Industry

— As IPv6 approaches commercial deployment, can it provide life to Japan's sluggish economy? —

19 December 2002

Atsushi Kawakita

1.Purpose

Discuss about

Can IPv6 Open the Door to Japan's Next Generation Information Industry ?

Can Next Generation Information Industry
Resolve the Economic Crisis in Japan ?

2. Panelists

Hiroshi Fujiwara	President & CEO, Internet Research Institute, Inc.
Kazuo Furukawa	Administrative Officers, Hitachi, Ltd.
Hisao Iizuka	Senior Vice President, NTT Communications Co.
Jun Murai	Professor, Keio University
Satoshi Yamaguchi	General Manager, JAFCO Co., Ltd.
Tetsuo Yamakawa	Manager, Ministry of Public Management, Home Affairs, Posts & Telecommunications

3. Viewpoint

- Industry; Hardware, Infrastructure, Application, Service
- Investor
- Government
- Academic

4. Subject

- Can IPv6 related industry create new major industry ?
- What is required in order that IPv6 related industry instigate growth of major new industry ?
- What are promising fields ?

5.Moderator Personal Profile

Atsushi Kawakita

- 2002.4- Professor, Dept. of Design, Engineering,
Management,
Kyoto Institute of Technology
- 2000.7-2002.2 Manager, Corporate Venture Capital Office, Hitachi, Ltd.
- 1999.10-2002.2 Manager, Corporate Planning Div.,
Semiconductor Group, Hitachi, Ltd.
- 1991.1-1999.3 Senior Researcher, Industry Research Div., LTCB Research Institute, Inc.
- 1980.4-1990.12 Assistant Manager, Japan Finance Corporation
for Small Business